

Prof. Claudio Vicini, MD

Prof Vicini is the Director of the Department of Head & Neck Surgery at ASL Romagna, and Chief, Otolaryngology – Head & Neck Surgery at the Stomatology & Oral Surgery Service GB Morgagni L Pierantoni Ospital ASL della Romagna University of Pavia in Forlì, Italy.

He was born in Cesena (Italy) and his basic training and University career may be summarized as follows: residency in Otolaryngology, residency in Audiology and a residency in Neurology.

His main fields of interest are: Oncological Head & Neck Surgery, Sleep Disordered Breathing Surgery, Stomatology, Facial Plastic Surgery, Neuro-otology, Trans Oral Robotic Surgery and Pediatric Surgery.

Prof Vicini is the recent incoming President of the Italian Otolaryngology Society. Furthermore, Prof. Vicini is an AIMS Expert of Sleep Medicine (Italian Sleep Medicine Society) and is a consultant in sleep surgery.

He has surgical expertise in the different above mentioned fields of about 15,000 procedures and is considered as one of the worldwide top leading figures in the field of sleep apnea.

He is conducting international cadaver dissection courses and is a robotic instructor for TORS – Intuitive.

Prof Vicini has 132 scientific publications in leading international medical journals.